

Latest Moment Bargains for Summer Girls.

- 14c yard for Cotton Voles, reproduction of imported fabrics made to retail up to 50c per yard. Lovely Dresden effects, polka dots, invisible plaids, checks, etc.
- 12c yard for White Persian Lawn, India Linon and Figured Organ-dies.
- 9c yard for Batiste and 12 1/2c summer girl wash dress goods.
- 50c for 75c and 75c for $1 Cream Mohair Serge and Panama, 48 inches wide.
- 39c for 50c and 40c for 68c White Habutal Silks, 38 inches wide.
- 49c yard for 68c Taffeta Silks; pin stripes and fancy checks, in black, white and various color combinations.
- $21 and $25 for Batiste Robes worth up to $35. More or less elaborately trimmed with lace medallions and insertions.
- $3.25 and $5 for $7 to $10 Waist Patterns of fine Irish Linen, hand embroidered.
- $5.00 for $7.50 Robes of Swiss Embroidery Flounce, with skirt and trimming for waist.
- $2.98 and $3.98 yard for Japanese Embroidery, the equal of European hand-embroidery costing $5 to $10 yard.
- 25c to $2 yard for Medallions and hand embroideries worth up to $4 yard.
- 25c to $1.98 for 12-yard pieces of best Valenciennes Laces; all imported.
- 42c to $2 yard for 45-inch Oriental Lace Nets, usually 50c to $2. The new small floral and dot designs.
- $10 for the very latest Sailor with high crown and broad, flat brim, trimmed with ostrich and peacock feathers, velvet, &c.
- $8.00 for the new White Sailor with trimmings in the new burnt orange effects, the latest moment d'atate.
- $1.29 for Horsehair and $1.98 for Chip Hats in very latest shapes; small and large.
- 39c for the large and superior wreaths and bunches of roses, made to retail at 50c.
- 10c for 25c and 75c for best broad quills; worth $1. All colors.
- 29c yard for the new Dresden Ribbons for belts, and 42c instead of 50c for children's plaid hair ribbons.
- 39c instead of 50c for the new algerettes, 40 m e t e r s called "shoots" and "stickups." Used on the new sailor hats.
- 98c for the wanted Long Silk Gloves and Mitts. Early morning visitors carry off the new arrivals, which are always limited in quantity.
- $2.99 instead of $3.25 for best 18-button Glace Kid Gloves. Plenty of black, but white are getting scarce.
- 89c for hand-made Irish Crochet Collars and Yokes, worth up to $2.
- 50c for samples of Chemisettes; many styles; some worth $1.50.

Gentlemen: a Word With You!

It is said you do not read advertisements. You don't, as a rule. Read this one—and learn of an opportunity to invest at a guaranteed profit of from 50 to 150 per cent. You can look ahead as far as next Christmas and anticipate the needed presents. You can rejoice to learn of a suggestion for the near coming June wedding or you may now make sweetheart or wife everlastingly grateful. It is easy enough to concoct a fairy tale, but to relate facts more wonderful—and make them seem unexaggerated—is not so very easy. If you were of the army of women patrons you would have learned to believe in any and all Palais Royal statements, but you are a man, don't read advertisements, and are possibly from Missouri. You are asked to believe your own eyes and critically examine the most varied collection of finest Leather Goods ever assembled at any one time, in any one establishment in these United States.

Prices Range From 79c to $49.00.

Actual Values Are $2.50 to $125.00.

Prices mean nothing if they are quoted for goods undesirable in any respect. These Leather Articles—2,343 pieces—are latest-moment styles and every one different. They are the samples used by the representative of the world's leading maker of finest goods, who returned to Europe last week. He has visited all the leading establishments of this western hemisphere and received his orders for the coming autumn-winter season. His samples—no longer needed—were purchased at nominal prices by the Palais Royal representative in New York. The list is below.

Club Bags, $35.00 and $49.00.

Worth $75.00 to $125.00.

All are of choicest leathers and hand made.

Most of these bags are fitted with silver-mounted toilet articles, which fit into the bag in many ingenious ways, and can be lifted out without disarranging the contents.

Styles for ladies' and gentlemen's use.

Fitted Cases, $5.00 to $25.00.

Worth $10.00 to $75.00.

As a piece of mechanism each is a wonder. Such traveling cases are fit for Kings and Queens—or for the plain American citizens who can better afford to purchase them.

Ladies' Bags, $3.50 and $7.50.

Worth $10.00 to $25.00.

The bags at $7.50 are of choicest leathers in all colors; some are fitted with superior Swiss watches. Others, at only $3.50, have opera glasses, which fold very ingeniously. Some have salts bottle, comb, glove buttoner, etc. The secret compartment for powder, puff and mirror would never be found by blundering "him."

Hand Bags, 79c. and $1.59.

Some Worth $6.00.

Over one hundred different styles of Bags at $1.59—and tomorrow's early visitors will find plenty worth $6 apiece. As little as 79c will suffice for a bag made to retail at $2.50. If this catches the eye of the lady readers—how bags will fly tomorrow.

Miscellaneous, $1.00 and $7.50.

Worth $3.00 to $15.00.

Fitted Medicine Chests at $1, and Automobile Baskets at $7.50, worth $15. The grand display of these and other miscellaneous articles, such as belts, etc., will be found on and in center aisle cases, first floor.

The illustrations are ineffective, inasmuch as they do not show the details of these ideal leather articles. Have you read of these details? See columns to left hand. Better still—be one of tomorrow's visitors and learn that courteous and intelligent attendants will be pleased and proud to show you through the entire matchless collection.

Jewelry

MARVELOUS REPRODUCTIONS OF ORIENTAL ORNAMENTS, BEING DISTRIBUTED AT NOMINAL PRICES.

Milady of cultivated taste best appreciates this jewelry—these weird ornaments of the Orient—dating back through the ages. Those who have been educated up to the fact that the ancient is infinitely more artistic than the modern linger long at the display here, and not a few whose means make price a last consideration are purchasing largely.

39c to $10

Some Worth $25.

Choice of the hammered designs of the Hindu, the bas-reliefs of the ancient Assyrians and reproductions of the Egyptian ornaments discovered in 1839 in the tombs of the kings, now preserved in the Museum of Beliak. Curiously beautiful specimens of Brooches, Collars, Bracelets, Necklaces, Pendants, Long Chains, Belt Buckles, Saah Pins, Combs, Boxes, Neck Festoons, La Vallieres, Hatpins, Scarfpins and ornaments with no particular name. Only 39c to $10 for ornaments the originals of which are of priceless value. See exhibition on first floor, center aisle.

Tiffany Combs, 48c 98c $1.48

Worth up to $5.

Tiffany designs—of combs worth up to hundreds of dollars. Only imitations, but each one is a marvelous reproduction. See display in "Tiffany Room" first floor, northeast corner.

$2 to $8 Waists for 98c, $1.29, $1.98 and $3.98.

These garments were made some time since—for the Summer Girls of 1906. Since they were made, the prices of materials, especially embroideries, have increased very much. The garments with much elaboration of trimming cannot be profitably reproduced, and are to be discontinued. The "drummer's" samples and remaining factory lots are secured by the Palais Royal representative at Clearing Sale prices. Thus, 98c for Waists worth $2; only $1.29 for many worth $3; $1.98 for $4 Waists, and $3.98 for not a few worth $8.

Skirts.

98c For Superior Quality White India Linen Skirts; platted effects; 38 to 44-inch length. Others, gradually rising in prices to $10 each. Note that even the 98c Skirts were designed by a $5,000 a year expert. It's the secret of the superiority of the garments here.

Dresses.

$10 For White French Lawn Frocks, elaborately lace trimmed. Note that the skirt has deep double flounce, with lace insertions. Only $10. Others for as much as $35. Many between prices. The girl graduate is surely interested with dresses worth $15 for $10. She must hurry.

Hosiery.

14c Pair for Gause Lisle Stockings worth 25c to 50c reads like a fairy tale. Literally true; and more expensive hose are here at even greater price surprises. It's the once-a-year distribution of samples from the leading importer of the United States.

Next to her skin the Summer Girl wears the glove-fitting Swiss Ribbed Union Suit, Vests, Pants, or Tights. Elastic, they conform to every curve and every movement. Prices here are as little as 12c for a vest, or only 25c for a union suit. Better bargains—the more expensive garments. The "Oneita," "Merode," and other best makes are Palais Royal specialties. The bargain spots include 50c Union Suits at 39c, with low neck, short sleeves, and knee-length umbrella pants. Good "spots" among the Silk Vests.

Lingerie Reduced.

69c 94c $1.79

$1 Values. $1.50 Values. $1 Values.

Only the too elaborately trimmed garments. As with white waists and dresses, so with lingerie, the increased cost of materials make reproductions of earlier made garments impossible, if any profit is to accrue to maker and retailer. Even out of this serious climax comes benefit to Palais Royal patrons—the garments too elaborately trimmed are to be discontinued by the makers and the samples and factory lots are secured at clearing sale prices. Choice of some thousands of Gowns, Skirts, Corset Covers, Drawers and Chemises. See the illustration for best of $1 Corset Covers and Skirts—to be 69c. See various tables full of other garments on first and third floors. Come prepared to buy supplies for the entire summer—such an opportunity will not occur again.

The Stout Woman's Convention

Continued by special request. Many have been delighted with the intelligent and painstaking efforts on the part of the Palais Royal corsettes, and pronounce the "Stout Woman's Convention" a most helpful and profitable occasion.

Has the reader yet learned that as little as $3 and no more than $5 suffice for corsets that are more effective than any heretofore known of at twice the price? Are you one of those who bless the "Nemo" and the Palais Royal? Have you learned that stout women's lingerie, Union suits and hose are also important features of the Palais Royal Convention?

Children's Clothing.

Bargains for mothers with a baby and children up to fourteen years of age. The rarest and best bargains are among the most expensive garments. The following will be most popular: May Ball Dresses, $1.98 instead of $3; Little Boys' and Girls' White Coats, $1.79 instead of $2.50; Little Boys' $2 Russian Suits for $1.48; Lingerie Hats to be $1.98 instead of $2.50.

These $1 Dresses, 89c.

Neglises, 44c and Up to $10.

89c for the Garment, as Illustrated.

Summer garments of White India Linon and Colored Batiste and Lawn. The more expensive are hand embroidered. At 44c, 89c and $1.79 are short and long negliges, trimmed with laces, embroideries and fagoting. Small, medium and extra sizes in all styles. The cool weather has retarded the opening of the season, and the Palais Royal and its manufacturers are taking less than fair profits to force a demand. You only anticipate your needs a day or so—and you save not a few pennies.

50c to $1.50 Corsets, 42c and 69c.

Forcing the sale of Summer Batiste and Ventilating Web Corsets. Styles vary from the girdle to the extra long, a style and size for every form and fancy. Values up to 75c for 42c, values up to $1.50 for 69c. Only 50c for Bust Ruffles worth up to $1.00. On third floor.

THE PALAIS ROYAL, A. LISNER, G and Eleventh Streets.